Dedication To Include $10,000 Note Burning

Memorial United Methodist Church is having a dedication service Sunday, March 19, celebrating the burning of a note for more than $150,000 which was for the building of the church.

The dedication will begin at 10:45 a.m., omitting Sunday School, with music by the choirs and quintet. There will be a sermon by the Rev. J. W. Mast, District Superintendent.

For many the highlight of the day will be the noteburning and for others, the food. There will be food for everyone in the church social hall where there will be a 150 pound cake and a replica of the church as the centerpiece of the serving table.

To commemorate this occasion, there will be a dedication booklet for every family of the church consisting of a history and photographs of the various groups and officers.

The Lord's Supper – The Crowning Service of Worship
Scripture Text: "Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say truly; for so I am. If I then your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet." – St. John 13:13,14. Special stress from the Communion Service. "To the holy communion this scripture (St. John 6:54,56,57) is a special sense applies. As faith contemplates our Lord's greatest sacrifice, the soul assimilates the spiritual life of Christ. That soul will receive spiritual strength from every communion. The service forms a living connection by which the believer is bound up with Christ, and he bound up with the Father. In a special sense it forms a connection between dependant human beings and God." –The Desire of Ages, page 661. "After-ward You Will Understand" In St. John 13:7 Jesus told Peter; What I am doing you do not know now, but after words you will understand." RSV. This indicates that while the Last Supper was a memorial of a past act, it was also prophetic of future events not understood at that time.
St. John 4:9-11 brings out more strongly why God humbled Himself so much to be the crowning Service of Worship. "In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but He loved us, and sent His son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another." St. John 15:9,14, makes it plain why it could be called a Sacramental Service. It represents the Vine and blood represents. "Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. So we can see The Lord's Supper points backward and forward. 1 Cor. 11:26 says, "As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till He come." St. John 13:7, 8 teaches us how the victory over sin and death is won. "What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter . . . if I wash thee not, thou hast no part with Me."

Our personal preparation for participation for the Lord's Supper is taught in 1 Cor. 11; 27, 28 "Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord–unworthily shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup." Gal. 5:1, 13 teaches Our Liberty is won through steadfastness. "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free." "Only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh."
Sabbath School – 10 a.m.
Church Service – 11 a.m.
To all friends and all people the word is –Come and worship with us. Don't forget the "Standing Invitation" issued by our prayers and unselfish Love" for "Selfish manity" whether at home land's abroad –Christ Calvary, for us all.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my loving son, RUSSELL R. MAWYER, departed this life, Feb. 25, 1972
We did not know the pain you had,
We do not see you die, we only know you
Went away and never said goodbye.
You bid no one a last farwell,
You said good bye to none,
Your loving heart cease to beat before we knew you had gone.
God give us strength to bear it and courage to meet the blow
But what it meant to lose you Russell, this world will never know.

Box Numbers Speed Mail Says Postmaster

"We could simplify our sorting procedures 100%," says postmaster H. W. (Billy) Conner if people would use complete addresses.

The postmaster says that many people, out of habit or simply because they do not have the information, fail to put route numbers and box numbers on mail addresses to Appomattox residents.

Consequently, says the postmaster, there are often delays while "John Doe, Appomattox, Va." is routed to the proper box and route number. Many changes recently in personnel in the Appomattox Post Office make it imperative says Conner that letter writers provide more information for the mail carriers.

Says Conner, "You would be doing us a tremendous favor if you would examine every piece of mail you receive to determine if your correspondents are using the proper address. If they are not, pick up the phone and tell them what your complete address is if the sender is out of town, send them a postal card with your correct address."

"Please be assured," adds Conner, "that we will continue to do our best to get all of the mail into the right hands promptly. If we can work together, the task will be most easier."
